

ELECTRICAL TECHNICIAN

PBE a growing manufacturer of absorbent medical products is in search of a full-time Industrial Electrical Technician on our evening shift. Candidates must have experience in trouble shooting, maintaining, installing, and repairing electrical controls, Rockwell Automation PLC hardware & software, variable speed drives & motors, servo motor drive systems, programmable operator interface systems, industrial communication networks, as well as mechanical & pneumatics systems used in manufacturing equipment. Must be skilled in the use of basic electrical test equipment. Qualified candidates will possess at least an Associates Degree in Industrial Electronics/Electrical Engineering and/or five years of related experience or equivalent.

Need dependable, team-oriented self-starter with the ability to cope with change and challenges and act as a leader within a fast-paced production environment. Qualified candidates must pass a mechanical aptitude test, electrical test and pre-employment physical and drug screening. Competitive salary and benefits. Send resume and salary requirements to Human Resources/Electrical, P.O. Box 129, Dunbridge, OH 43414 - fax 419-373-7236 –e-mail apply@pbenet.com with the position of interest in the subject line - get application on-line at <http://apply.tranquilityproducts.com>.. EOE, DFWP.